IMPORTANT SAFETY INFORMATION: READ THE FOLLOWING WARNINGS BEFORE YOU OR YOUR CHILD PLAY VIDEO GAMES.

WARNING - Seizures
- Some people (about 1 in 4000) may have seizures or blackouts triggered by light flashes or patterns, such as while watching TV or playing video games, even if they have never had a seizure before.
- Anyone who has had a seizure, loss of awareness, or other symptom linked to an epileptic condition should consult a doctor before playing a video game.
- Parents should watch their children play video games. Stop playing and consult a doctor if you or your child have any of the following symptoms:
  - Convulsions
  - Eye or muscle twitching
  - Loss of awareness
  - Altered vision
  - Involuntary movements
  - Disorientation
- To reduce the likelihood of a seizure when playing video games:
  1. Sit or stand as far from the screen as possible.
  2. Play video games on the smallest available television screen.
  3. Do not play if you are tired or need sleep.
  4. Play in a well-lit room.
  5. Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour.

WARNING - Repetitive Motion Injuries and Eyestrain
- Playing video games can make your muscles, joints, skin or eyes hurt after a few hours. Follow these instructions to avoid problems such as tendinitis, carpal tunnel syndrome, skin irritation or eyestrain:
  - Avoid excessive play. It is recommended that parents monitor their children for appropriate play.
  - Take a 10 to 15 minute break every hour, even if you don’t think you need it.
  - When using the stylus, you do not need to grip it tightly or press it hard against the screen. Doing so may cause fatigue or discomfort.
  - If your hands, wrists, arms or eyes become tired or sore while playing, stop and rest them for several hours before playing again.
  - If you continue to have sore hands, wrists, arms or eyes during or after play, stop playing and see a doctor.

WARNING - Radio Frequency Interference
The Nintendo DS can emit radio waves that can affect the operation of nearby electronics, including cardiac pacemakers.
- Do not operate the Nintendo DS within 9 inches of a pacemaker while using the wireless feature.
- If you have a pacemaker or other implanted medical device, do not use the wireless feature of the Nintendo DS without first consulting your doctor or the manufacturer of your medical device.
- Observe and follow all regulations and rules regarding use of wireless devices in locations such as hospitals, airports, and on board aircraft. Operation in those locations may interfere with or cause malfunctions of equipment, with resulting injuries to persons or damage to property.

WARNING - Battery Leakage
The Nintendo DS contains a rechargeable lithium ion battery pack. Leakage of ingredients contained within the battery pack, or the combustion products of the ingredients, can cause personal injury as well as damage to your Nintendo DS.
- If battery leakage occurs, avoid contact with skin. If contact occurs, immediately wash thoroughly with soap and water. If liquid leaking from a battery pack comes into contact with your eyes, immediately flush thoroughly with water and see a doctor.
- To avoid battery leakage:
  - Do not expose battery to excessive physical shock, vibration, or liquids.
  - Do not disassemble, attempt to repair or deform the battery.
  - Do not dispose of battery pack in a fire.
  - Do not touch the terminals of the battery, or cause a short between the terminals with a metal object.
  - Do not peel or damage the battery label.

LARA

At the age of nine, Lara survived a plane crash in the Himalayan mountains that led to the death of her mother. After miraculously surviving a ten-day solo trek from the crash site to Kathmandu, she spent the rest of her childhood under the close tutelage of her archeologist father, the late Earl of Abbingdon, Richard Croft.

At the age of 18, after the death of her father, Lara inherited the Croft estates and became Countess of Abbingdon. Since then she has been credited with the discovery of some 16 archeological sites of international significance. Lara Croft has been hailed both as an archeological wunderkind and a glorified treasure hunter, depending on who’s talking.

There are thousands of rumors surrounding Lara’s exploits, invariably involving the unexplained or outright unbelievable. Lady Croft herself is rarely available for comment, which further adds to the fog of mystery that surrounds her life and work.

Consequently, Lara Croft continues to be the focus of wild speculation and intense debate. Idealized and vilified in equal measure, she is perhaps one of the most fascinating, enigmatic figures of our time.

The Trading screen displays the name of the owner of the item. You can then send a request to buy this item by touching the BUY button for the selected user.

When you request the trade, you need to give the buying price, which can be set on the Buying Screen. Set the price on the Touch Screen, using the arrows. When the price is set, you can confirm or cancel this offer.

When you send this request, the other player will get a message and can accept or reject this deal. On the other player's screen, the data of the deal will appear along with your name and the name of the item.

After the deal, all players involved will get a message about the result. The buyer will see the item unlocked, and the seller will see that the item is locked.
TRADING TIME TRIAL RECORDS

You can also link up with your friends via the wireless communications feature to see who has recorded the best times. Select TIME TRIAL from the Extras Menu. The top screen contains MY RECORDS, your personal records to date. The bottom screen shows a high-score table listing the other players’ records.

Note: When you view the Time Trials for the first time, and are not yet connected to other players, the bottom screen displays only your personal best. Once you’re connected to other players, your high score is saved on the cartridge and the Time Trial record becomes accessible — even when you play the game in a single-player mode.

High scores are updated and saved each time you make a wireless connection. High scores are automatically updated and stored from the last best times from both the wireless communications feature and your profile. All times include the name of the player who recorded them.
